Gdansk

If you prefer the gusts of a seaside port visit Gdańsk. This city is a living tapestry of captivating tales. Walk along the colorful facades of Long Street, visit the iconic Neptune's Fountain, and explore the historic shipyards where the Solidarity movement sparked waves of change.

Zakopane

Nestled in the stunning Tatra Mountains, Zakopane is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. Lace up your boots and embark on epic hiking trails that will take you through breathtaking landscapes, from soaring peaks to enchanting valleys. And when winter comes, strap on your skis or snowboard for thrilling downhill adventures.

Wrocław

The city of stunning architectural ensemble influenced by various styles, including Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque, and Art Nouveau. Often referred to as the "Venice of Poland" due to its 12 islands and over 100 bridges. The Oder River meanders through the city, creating a unique and enchanting cityscape. The city is also known for its craft beer culture, with numerous breweries and beer gardens.
